General Goals:

- Exposure to the workings of most of the instruments of the modern symphony orchestra
- Learn the basic skills of combining the various choirs
- Orchestrate one selection for full orchestra
- Orchestrate one selection for concert band
- Develop orchestrational listening skills
- Familiarity with important orchestral repertoire
- Further development of the tastes and refinements of the individual

Activities

- Written assignments
- Orchestration Exercises
- Reading Sessions: You will orchestrate projects for orchestra and concert band. The orchestra work will be read. Attendance at the reading session is required

Attendance

Attendance is very important and will alter your final percentage grade. Promptness and attendance is expected as a demonstration of your commitment. Excuses absences must be documented with a physician's note or a letter from your academic adviser. You are entitled to one unexcused absence, after which three points will be deducted from your final grade for each subsequent unexcused absence.

Homework

- Homework will be assigned. Most of it will be graded. If homework is not taken up at the end of one class or if homework is not graded for several classes, do not assume (a) that it will never be taken up and throw it away or forget to bring it to class, or (b) homework due the next class will not be taken up either.
- Homework will not be accepted late unless you pre-approve it with the professor or your excuse is extraordinary.
- Any work that is handed in must be done in pencil (ink will not be accepted). It must also be very neat – done with a ruler or appearing to be done with a ruler.
- Absence from class is not an excuse for not completing assignments.

Tests and Exams

There will be three tests, a midterm, and a final exam. Tests will not be made up unless pre-approved. The final exam will be given during finals week according to the College schedule.

Email & Blackboard

Blackboard will be used to disseminate course materials like handouts and assignments. Other course materials (e.g., the syllabus) will also be posted there.

The college provides all students with a college email address. Please note that non-college email addresses cannot be used for correspondence. Students should check their email regularly.

Disability Statement

If you are a student with a documented disability and require academic accommodation, please register with [REDACTED], the Director of Services for Students with Disabilities, located in the Academic Support Center on the 2nd floor of St. Joseph Hall (campus extension [REDACTED]) for disability verification and determination of recommended reasonable academic accommodations. After you have made arrangements with that office, please see me to discuss your accommodations. Please remember that timely notice will help avoid a delay in your receipt of accommodations.

Academic Integrity

Students at [REDACTED] are expected to be honest in every aspect of their academic work. Plagiarism, cheating, academic misconduct, or any other submission of another's work as one's own is not acceptable. In a situation where the course instructor determines that, more likely than not, a breach of academic integrity has occurred, the incident will be reported according to the Policy on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity (see the appropriate passages in the Undergraduate Student Handbook).
